Outdoor Emergency Care (OEC) courses are usually taught evenings and weekends during the off-season in the Bay Area, Sacramento, and Reno, not at ski resorts. You should review the following list of locations where OEC classes have been taught in the past to determine which is best for you. The OEC course is approximately 80 hours of class time, and involves a minimum 12 sessions.

You will be notified of any OEC courses scheduled in the area(s) you checked through the end of 1998. There is no guarantee that OEC courses will be offered in each area every year, so if you live between two listed areas you may wish to check more than one area to increase your chances of being admitted to a course. Please check only those areas to which you are willing to travel for classes.

I WISH TO ATTEND AN OEC COURSE IN THE AREA(S) CHECKED BELOW:

- ____ (1) San Francisco
- ____ (2) South Bay Area (San Jose/Mountain View)
- ____ (3) East Bay (Piedmont/San Ramon)
- ____ (4) Sacramento
- ____ (5) Modesto
- ____ (6) Reno/Lake Tahoe
